

Volunteering Opportunity

Volunteer director of Mencap Trust Company Ltd

The Mencap Trust Company Board are looking for a person with learning disability to join them.

The person will take over from Ed Wadsworth.

Ed was a member of the Mencap Trust Company Board for 4 years.

Ed has been an excellent volunteer Board member.

He has completely changed the ways we communicate with people who have Mencap trusts.

We want to keep getting better at communication.

We need a person with a learning disability and/or autism who has the skills to join the Mencap Trust Board.

You will be helping to make Mencap Trust the best service it can be for people with a learning disability and autism.

We are having an information session about Mencap Trust

On Wednesday 26th June from 11am to 2pm

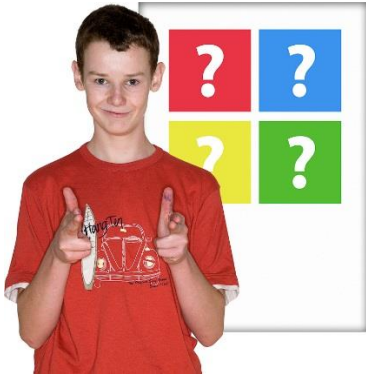

At Mencap Office 123 Golden Lane London EC1Y 0RT

We will pay travel costs, and we will all have lunch together.

You will be able to meet members of the Trust Team.

Ed will talk about how the Board works. You can ask us any questions.

We want the information session to help you decide if you want to apply to join the Board.

We are asking applicants to send in a CV and a statement (written or by video) saying what you can bring to the role.

We will talk to everyone who applies.

If you would like to come along to the information session please email mtc@mencap.org.uk

or call the Trust Office on 020 7969 6932

If you can't come to the information session but are interested, don't worry.

Please email mtc@mencap.org.uk

or call the Trust Office on 020 7969 6932

We will answer your questions and send you an application pack.

Please spread the word

If you know someone who may be interested in volunteering for the Mencap Trust Board, please tell them about this opportunity.
